

TACTIC

ENFORCED APPEARANCE

When the state tries to suppress activism through enforced disappearance and assassination, supporters can use murals, shrines, graffiti and other public art to remember the disappeared and call for justice.

---

“They tried to bury us. They didn’t realize we were seeds.”
—Greek poet Dinos Christianopoulos

RELATED TOOLS

Stories

- Conflict Kitchen

Tactics

- Human banner
- Reverse graffiti

Principles

- Build strength through repetition

Theories

- Artivism